

Launch your Business:
The Lean Start up model.

This is our done with you program.

Lifestyle Business startup.

How To Become A Prosperity Coach?

$3k investment.(u.s.d)

(options available)

The Development partnership.

How to build a lifestyle coaching business and how to achieve that over time.

A lifestyle business by our definition as we explained in our workshop.

Work when you desire and how you desire.

For me this is additional income to the streams you have.

You work one on one with clients to help them achieve the outcomes they desire.

How to market our coaching program Quantum State and our 17-day Personal Prosperity training.

Even if you're not an expert at anything & feel like an "imposter".

We use paid advertising.

You contribute to our Facebook page and share your circle of influence.

This is our done with you offer.

This is a program of continued learning.

To allow you to grow into the person who becomes a prosperity coach.

You will be talking to clients and teaching them what you are learning.

You are the coach.

Your core product is the Quantum State Coaching product.

Your profit from sales is $1000.00 per sale.

17-day Personal Prosperity $1000.00 profit per sale.

We also have the package price for both

Also, you Initially price Your Coaching service you charge your client for is $997.00 of which you receive 100% of this fee.

This is our unlimited coaching package.

This will change as you grow and have stories to tell.

Other product sales are different, depending on the product.

1. Low Initial Investment.

The program requires minimal upfront investment, making it accessible even if you're starting with limited funds.

This reduces financial risk and allows you to begin your journey without significant financial pressure.

It also gives you a minimum viable product that you sell.

2. Gradual Start.

The program is designed to start small and grow slowly.

This approach allows you to build your business at a comfortable pace, ensuring you can manage your workload and learn as you go.

It also helps you avoid feeling overwhelmed by too many responsibilities at once.

3. Learning While Earning.

One of the key advantages is the opportunity to learn while you earn.

As you work with clients and develop your skills, you gain practical experience that enhances your coaching abilities.

This hands-on learning is invaluable and helps you become more effective over time.

4. Shared Marketing Efforts.

Marketing can be a significant expense and challenge for new businesses.

By contributing to a shared marketing plan, you benefit from a collaborative approach that maximizes your reach and impact.

The program's co-contribution model means you only need to invest what you can afford (minimum $500 per month for the time you work with us.)

This is shortly funded by your profits.

Leads are captured on a lead page that is yours only. It will have our workshop process.

5. Cash Flow Management.

With a focus on cash flow, the program ensures that you have a steady income stream from the start.

This is crucial for maintaining financial stability and allows you to reinvest in your business as it grows.

Consistent cash flow helps you cover expenses and plan for future growth.

Cash is King.

6. Support and Guidance.

Partnering with an established program provides you with access to experienced coaches and mentors.

This support network can offer valuable advice, feedback, and encouragement, helping you navigate challenges and make informed decisions.

7. Proven Framework.

The program likely follows a trusted and proven framework, which can increase your chances of success.

By leveraging established methods and best practices, you can avoid common pitfalls and accelerate your progress.

8. Flexibility.

The program's flexible structure allows you to tailor your involvement to your personal and professional needs.

You start part-time, you can adjust your commitment as your circumstances change.

Our business system is designed to always be part-time.

9. It's our Done with You package.

You connect with our infrastructure.

You have your own landing page and you receive the leads directly to you.

Website, c.r.m, email sequence, booking calendar etc.

After 3 months there is a monthly fee for this. (very affordable.)

10. Current marketing.

This offer is designed to target mature age people (over 50) looking to create financial security and desire to be in the business of assisting others to overcome their blocks.

You can choose who you desire to market to but in the initial stages of your business its all about the number of eyeballs that get to see your offer.

A cooperative marketing program creates more eye balls on an offer.

By starting your prosperity coaching business with the you will have access to "Partner with a Coach" program, you can minimize risks, maximize learning opportunities, and build a sustainable, profitable business.

What you receive:
